REGULATION OF TRANSPORTATION SERVICE.

Mr. CULBERSON. Mr. President, I present a petition in the form of a letter from the attorney of the American National Live Stock Association and the Cattle Raisers' Association of Texas, with accompanying papers, being resolutions adopted by the American Live Stock Association which recently convened at Denver, Colo., and the Cattle Raisers' Association, of Texas, at its annual convention at Fort Worth, Tex., as well as a resolution adopted by the Trans-Mississippi Congress which recently held a session at Muskogee, Okla. I ask that the letter with the accompanying resolutions may be printed in the Record and referred to the Committee on Interstate Commerce. They relate to the urgent necessity for the passage of an act of Congress on the subject of compelling the railroad companies to furnish cars to shippers, and I invite the attention of the committee specially to these papers.

There being no objection, the letter and accompanying resolutions were referred to the Committee on Interstate Commerce and ordered to be printed in the Record, as follows:

WASHINGTON, D. C., December 17, 1907.

HON. C. A. CULBERSON, Washington, D. C.

DEAR SIR: At the request of the live-stock interest which I represent, I herewith hand you a copy of a resolution adopted by the American National Live Stock Association at the last annual convention, at Denver, Colo., January 23, 1907, which in substance was also adopted by the Cattle Raisers' Association of Texas at its annual convention at Fort Worth, Tex., March 20, 1907, indorsing Senate bill 7887, introduced by you at the last session of Congress, defining the duties of common carriers with respect to furnishing cars to shippers, exchanging cars between themselves, and regulating the transportation service, fixing penalties for failure of such duties, and for like purposes, which bill has been reintroduced in the Senate at this session, numbered S. 483, and referred to the Committee on Interstate Commerce.

I am directed by these organizations to request that these resolutions be presented to the Senate of the United States as the expression of the live-stock producers and shippers demanding relief from an intolerable condition, and will therefore thank you to have the same read in the Senate and such action taken thereon as is appropriate. A number of State and local associations of stockmen have during this year indorsed the same idea, and the Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress passed a resolution of similar import at its meeting at Muskogee November 20, 1907.

In submitting these resolutions permit me to emphasize it that these organizations are thoroughly representative of the great live-stock producing interests of the trans-Mississippi country, where is produced over 72 per cent of the cattle and 75 per cent of the sheep and 52 per cent of the hogs of the United States, and probably 90 per cent of the surplus which supplies our domestic and foreign trade. They speak the sentiments of the farm producer as well as for the range producer from Texas to Montana and from the Mississippi to the Pacific.

The American National Live Stock Association is composed of State and local associations and individuals from nearly all of the Western States and from the Territories, while the Cattle Raisers' Association of Texas represents its members, cattle raisers in all the Southwestern States and Territories, who do business of shipping throughout the West and to markets.

We do not know in what better way we can make their wishes known than through unanimous resolutions expressive of the facts and of our desires. We stand ready to prove the facts as stated.

Permit me to say further that the conditions of live-stock transportation have not, on the whole, improved over last year; though there may have been improvement on some lines, yet it has become worse on others.

The stockmen of the country do not subscribe to the idea that no law should be enacted for further regulation of railways to afford the shipper a fair and reasonable service for a fair price because of financial stringency. If, as contended, the roads are less able to comply with such requirements because of financial stringency, what is to be said for the stockman who is less able to stand the loss and injury to his business from the same cause? Shall that cause be pleaded to exempt the carrier and leave the shipper the bag to hold?

Investigation will show that earnings on the whole are greater rather than less since the regulating laws were enacted, and so it is with rates. The contrary contention is without foundation, except possible isolated cases. A free exchange of cars between the roads is one of the main purposes of the bill and will be of great advantage to the roads.

We shall thank you to present these resolutions to the Senate.

Very respectfully,

THE AMERICAN NATIONAL LIVE STOCK ASSOCIATION,
THE CATTLE RAISERS' ASSOCIATION OF TEXAS,
By S. H. COWAN, Attorney.

Resolution to require railroads to promptly furnish cars, etc.

Whereas many of the railroads have failed to supply themselves with sufficient facilities to perform their duties as common carriers in receiving and transporting freight throughout the western half of the United States, where live-stock raising and feeding and shipping is a most extensive and important industry, and have failed to furnish cars in which live stock could be shipped to market to such an extent that tens of thousands of cattle and sheep could not during the past season be marketed; and have failed to supply cars for such great length of time after orders have been given therefor that a large proportion of the live stock marketed were so much delayed, generally for weeks, and in so many instances for months, that they lost seriously in flesh and condition; and after cars were supplied and live stock loaded have moved to the same at such slow rate of speed and otherwise delayed shipments as to seriously damage such live stock; and

Whereas this treatment of the live-stock industry of the country has been growing worse year by year and has cost the producers millions of dollars, reaching the appalling condition during the past season of forcing many shippers practically out of the business, probably bankrupting some and seriously injuring and demoralizing the entire live-stock business, particularly in the Southwest; and

Whereas there are as a whole more stock cars and have been fewer shipments the past season than heretofore, and it is our belief from observation, experience, and from what we can ascertain, that there has been a reckless indifference of the railroad management in the localities where this disastrous condition has existed in supplying themselves with stock cars or in utilizing what they have been able to obtain, to transport live stock, either permitting the cars to stand idle, as has often been the case, or using them in transporting other traffic at a time when live stock was being held for shipment and fast depreciating in value, thereby producing a wanton destruction of property; and

Whereas there exists no adequate means of compelling the railroads to perform their duty to furnish cars and perform the transportation service in a reasonable time, if at all, and no means of securing adequate redress for failure of the railroads to perform those duties, where they fail to do so; and

Whereas there is no way by which one railroad can compel its connections to exchange empty cars for loaded cars of live stock, or to receive and forward live stock in the cars in which they are loaded; and

Whereas the refusal of railroads to permit cars to go off their own line and to deliver cars to other lines has to a great extent impaired the efficiency of the cars which should be available, and placed it beyond the power of many railroads to secure cars or a return of cars or exchange of cars and in this way demoralized the railroad service; and

Whereas it is our earnest belief concurred in by all those who investigate the subject, that the free exchange of cars and the through and rapid transportation of live stock is the only way in which this unbearable condition can be relieved; and

Whereas we believe that if left to themselves the railroads will not better conditions, at least not relieve them, in the absence of some law which compels a free exchange and intercourse of cars to enable each road to get back empty cars for loaded cars delivered to its connection, and a law which fixes penalties to compel the furnishing of cars to shippers, and the exchange and interchange as between railroads; and

Whereas there has been introduced in the Senate of the United States by the Hon. C. A. CULBERSON, United States Senator from Texas, a bill numbered S. 7887 declaring it to be the duty of railroads subject to the act to regulate commerce to provide sufficient facilities to perform with dispatch their duties as common carriers in furnishing cars and transporting all freight, including live stock, and to promptly transport same, and to exchange loaded and empty cars, and otherwise to provide sufficient facilities, fixing penalties for failure of such duties, and giving to the shipper the right to recover in any court of any State or Territory having jurisdiction his damages and attorney's fees, and, in case of failure to furnish cars for shipping live stock, double the damages sustained; and also empowering the Interstate Commerce Commission to enforce penalties for violation of the act, and to make rules and regulations with respect to the time and manner of giving notice for cars, furnishing cars, exchange and interchange of cars, and all needful rules and regulations in the administration of such law and to compel its observance, and providing rules applicable to the different classes and kind of freight and the varying circumstances and conditions of shipment; and

Whereas we believe that the enactment of said bill into law will speedily remedy the deplorable conditions herein set forth, and that some such measure is imperatively necessary; Now therefore be it

Resolved by the American National Live Stock Association in convention assembled at Denver, Colo., January 22 and 23, 1907, That we heartily indorse said bill and recommend to our Senator and Congressmen from all the Western States from which this association draws its membership that the same be passed; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be promptly printed and sent to each of the Western Senators and Congressmen, with the request that the same be read in both the Senate and House of Representatives as the expression of this convention; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy thereof be sent to President Roosevelt as the expression of this convention, with the request he submit to Congress a special message urging an enactment of such a law; and be it further

Resolved, That said bill be printed by the secretary of the association and furnished the members thereof, with the request that they write their respective Senators and Members of Congress urging the enactment thereof.

Duties of railroads.

Resolved by the Trans-Mississippi Congress in annual convention assembled at Muskogee, November 19 to 22, That we urgently insist that the Congress of the United States enact a law defining the duties of common carriers to deliver to shippers at point of shipment in reasonable time cars for shipment of freight as interstate commerce and carry and deliver the same to the connecting lines in reasonable time or to destination, fixing penalties for such failure of duty; and to deliver in reasonable time after demand to their connecting lines as many suitable cars for similar freight as is delivered loaded for shipment such cars by the connecting line demanding such cars, fixing penalties for such failure of duty, and making the carriers each liable to shippers who may be damaged by the failure of such carriers to demand or deliver in pursuance thereof such cars.

Adopted by Trans-Mississippi Congress, November 20, 1907, annual convention at Muskogee.

Mr. DIXON. I submit two concurrent resolutions and ask for their immediate consideration.

The VICE-PRESIDENT. The first concurrent resolution sent to the desk by the Senator from Montana will be read.

The Secretary read as follows:

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That the Secretary of War be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to cause a survey to be made of the Flathead River, Montana, from the mouth of the same to the city of Kalispell, with a view of dredging and cleaning out a channel carrying 4 feet of water from the city of Kalispell to the mouth of said river and to submit a plan and estimate for such improvements.

The VICE-PRESIDENT. Is there objection to the present consideration of the concurrent resolution?

Mr. SCOTT. I object to its present consideration.

The VICE-PRESIDENT. Objection is made, and the concurrent resolution will lie over. The Secretary will read for the information of the Senate the second concurrent resolution submitted by the Senator from Montana.

The Secretary read as follows:

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That the Secretary of War be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to cause a survey to be made of the portion of the Yellowstone River from the city of Glendive, Mont., to the mouth of said river with a view of cleaning out the channel thereof so as to maintain a 4-foot stage of water therein, including a lock at the United States Government dam, and to submit a plan and estimate for such improvement.

The VICE-PRESIDENT. The Senator from Montana asks unanimous consent for the present consideration of the concurrent resolution.

Mr. LODGE. Let it take the same course.

The VICE-PRESIDENT. Objection is made, and the concurrent resolution will lie over.

Mr. CARTER. I suggest to my colleague the propriety of having the resolutions referred to the Committee on Commerce for consideration. I suppose there will be no objection to that course.

Resolved, That 500 additional copies of Senate Document No. 392 be printed as corrected, with envelopes, and that the incorrect edition now on hand be turned over to S. H. Slaughter for use in his work of the promotion of the ramie industry.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, in explanation of the resolution I will state that Mr. Slaughter at his own expense and trouble prepared this document. It accompanied Senate bill No. 4633 at the last session of Congress. Conditions have arisen which make it desirable to reprint the document. It is one for general information upon a subject in which a great many people are interested, and Mr. Slaughter desires to send out those that are on hand which are not correct and to have 500 correct copies printed for use under the rules of the Senate.

The resolution was considered by unanimous consent and agreed to.

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, directed to have stated and audited in the Sixth Auditor's office the salary accounts of former postmasters who served at post-offices in the various States and Territories of the United States in terms between July 1, 1864, and July 1, 1874, and who applied to the Postmaster-General, prior to January 1, 1887, for payment of increased salary under the act of March 3, 1883, such salary accounts to be stated upon the registered returns of each postmaster for each term of service specified, and by the method and rule laid down by the Postmaster-General for the statement and payment of salary accounts of former postmasters under the act of March 3, 1883, in his public order of February 16, 1884, directing payment of salaries by commissions and box rents, less the salaries paid at the time of service; and to enable the Secretary of the Treasury the better to comply with this resolution the Postmaster-General is hereby directed to turn over to the Sixth Auditor all the data now in his hands pertaining to each and every such claim; and the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby directed to report to the Senate as many such stated salary accounts of former postmasters, by States, as soon as they can be made ready during the present session.

SUSPENSION OF ASSESSMENT WORK ON MINING CLAIMS.

Mr. TELLER. Mr. President, I understood on the last day's session that no business would be done to-day except routine business. I understand also that that includes any subject which is not objected to by any Senator. At that session there was a bill of some importance considered. It is very short; it has been read and amended, and is now before the Senate. I ask the unanimous consent of the Senate that a vote may be taken on the passage of the bill. I believe there is no objection to this course. If there is, of course, it will go over.

The VICE-PRESIDENT. The Senator's understanding with respect to the transaction of business at to-day's session is correct, so far as it relates to routine business. There was nothing said with regard to the consideration of subjects to which there is no objection. The Senator from Colorado asks unanimous consent for the present consideration of the bill (S. 1192) to amend an act entitled "An act to amend section No. 2324 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, relating to mining claims."

Mr. TELLER. I ask for a final vote on the bill.

Mr. SMOOT. I should like to ask the Senator from Colorado if the Senator from Montana [Mr. CARTER] understands that the bill is to be taken up this morning and passed?

Mr. TELLER. I spoke to the Senator from Montana. He does not desire to make any objection, and I hope the Senator from Utah will not object.

Mr. NELSON. Is the bill to be limited as it was the other day to the States named?

Mr. TELLER. Precisely as it was the other day.

The VICE-PRESIDENT. Is there objection to the present consideration of the bill?

There being no objection, the Senate resumed the consideration of the bill.

The VICE-PRESIDENT. The bill is in the Senate and the amendments made as in Committee of the Whole have been concurred in. If no further amendment be proposed in the Senate, the bill will be ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

The bill was ordered to be engrossed for a third reading, read the third time, and passed.

PAN-AMERICAN SCIENTIFIC CONGRESS AT SANTIAGO, CHILE.

The VICE-PRESIDENT laid before the Senate the following message from the President of the United States, which was read and, with the accompanying paper, referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations and ordered to be printed:

To the Senate and House of Representatives:

I transmit herewith for the consideration of the respective Houses of the Congress a report of the Secretary of State representing the appropriateness of early action in order that in response to the invitation of the Government of Chile the Government of the United States may be enabled fittingly to be represented at the First Pan-American Scientific Congress to be held at Santiago, Chile, the first ten days of December, 1908.

The recommendations of this report have my hearty approval and I hope that the Congress will see fit to make timely provision to enable the Government to respond appropriately to the invitation of the Government of Chile in the sending of delegates to a congress which can not fail to be of great interest and importance to the governments and peoples of all the American Republics.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

THE WHITE HOUSE,
December 21, 1907.

PURCHASE AND DISTRIBUTION OF VALUABLE SEEDS.

The joint resolution (H. J. Res. 66) making an appropriation to supply a deficiency in the appropriation for the purchase and distribution of valuable seeds was read the first time by its title.

Mr. ALLISON. That is a deficiency appropriation, and I understand it is rather important that it should be considered at this time, at least that it would facilitate the operations of the Department if it were passed at once. Therefore

I ask unanimous consent that the joint resolution may be considered now.

The VICE-PRESIDENT. The joint resolution will be read the second time at length for the information of the Senate.

The joint resolution was read the second time at length, as follows:

Resolved, etc., That to supply a deficiency occasioned by the destruction of the seed warehouse used by the Department of Agriculture in the city of Washington November 6, 1907, in the appropriation "Purchase and distribution of valuable seeds," including each and every object authorized by law and specified in the appropriation of $238,000, except the provision for the purchase of foreign seed, under this title in the "Act making appropriations for the Department of Agriculture for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908," approved March 4, 1907, the sum of $50,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

The VICE-PRESIDENT. Is there objection to the request of the Senator from Iowa for the present consideration of the joint resolution?

There being no objection, the joint resolution was considered as in Committee of the Whole.

The joint resolution was reported to the Senate without amendment, ordered to a third reading, read the third time, and passed.

SATURDAY, December 21, 1907.

The House met at 12 o'clock m.

Prayer by the Chaplain, Rev. HENRY N. COUDEN, D. D., as follows:

Father of light and life, justice and mercy, love and liberty, peace and good will, our hearts turn to Thee with inexpressible joy and gratitude at this season of the year, which reminds us of Thine own best gift to the world, through whom Thou didst reveal Thine own heart and through whom Thou didst impart life more abundantly unto Thy children. Help us, we beseech Thee, to forgive our transgressors as we hope at last to be forgiven of Thee.

We thank Thee that the indications now point to the ushering in of that permanent and lasting peace 'twixt all the nations of the earth heralded by the angelic host ages ago, "Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace, good will toward men."

Let Thy blessing, we beseech Thee, attend the officers, Members, and employees of this House and their respective families as we separate for the holiday season and bring us together at the appointed time in health, strength, and vigor, that we may do the work that Thou hast given us to do in the spirit of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Master. Amen.

The Journal of the proceedings of Thursday, December 19, 1907, was read and approved.

ADMITTING HERNAN ULLOA TO WEST POINT.

Mr. HULL of Iowa. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent for the present consideration of the following resolution, which I send to the desk and ask to have read.

The Clerk read as follows:

Joint resolution (H. J. Res. 80) authorizing the Secretary of War to receive for instruction at the Military Academy at West Point Mr. Hernan Ulloa, of Costa Rica.

Resolved, etc., That the Secretary of War be, and he hereby is, authorized to permit Mr. Hernan Ulloa, of Costa Rica, to receive instruction at the Military Academy at West Point: Provided, That no expense shall be caused to the United States thereby and that the said Hernan Ulloa shall agree to comply with all regulations for the police and discipline of the academy, to be studious, and to give his utmost efforts to accomplish the courses in the various departments of instruction: And provided further, That in the case of the said Hernan Ulloa the provisions of sections 1320 and 1321 of the Revised Statutes shall be suspended.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection?

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object, as I understand this resolution, it involves no expense to the United States Government.

Mr. HULL of Iowa. No expense at all. It comes from the Secretary of State in the usual form that has been the custom for at least forty or fifty years. The resolution expressly declares there shall be no expense to the United States. The Secretary of War reports that there are accommodations that can be furnished. It is simply the courtesy that has always been extended to these little republics without costing the Government anything.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears no objection. The question is on the engrossment and third reading of the joint resolution.

The joint resolution was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, read the third time, and passed.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

THE WHITE HOUSE, December 21, 1907.

PRINTING AND BINDING FOR COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS NO. 1.

Mr. MANN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent for the present consideration of the following resolution, which I send to the desk and ask to have read.

The Clerk read as follows:

Resolved, That the Committee on Elections No. 1 shall be, and is hereby, authorized during the Sixtieth Congress to have such printing and binding done as may be required in the transaction of its business.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection? [After a pause.] The Chair hears none. The question is on agreeing to the resolution.

The question was taken and the resolution was agreed to.

SITTINGS OF COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS NO. 1.

Mr. MANN. Mr. Speaker, I also ask unanimous consent for the present consideration of the following resolution, which I send to the desk and ask to have read.

The Clerk read as follows:

Resolved, That the Committee on Elections No. 1 in the Sixtieth Congress be authorized to sit during the sessions of the House.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection?

Mr. HEPBURN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to suggest to the House whether it is a wise plan to give from time to time this permission to sit without regard to the sittings of the House. For instance, Mr. Speaker, when this permission is given, how could the Speaker secure a quorum? The Speaker could not arrest a man who is permitted by action of the House to absent himself. I think that in every call of the House, if this practice is continued, it will be necessary first to vacate all of the permissions to be absent. I have seen it going on from time to time and have often thought it ought to be objected to. It prevents a quorum. It prevents a number of gentlemen from being here who ought to be in this Chamber. It gives an excuse, and I doubt whether it is a wise policy.

Mr. MANN. Mr. Speaker, I quite agree with my friend from Iowa. I have the honor to serve under him in what I consider the most important committee of the House, and I believe that committee has never asked consent to sit during the sessions of the House and does not make a practice of doing so, but in an election committee there is quite a different practice prevailing, and it is quite necessary to have it where the election committee has argument of an election case before it. It considers the case exactly as judges do upon the bench, and it is not desirable to interrupt the argument any further than necessary. These election committees do not sit during the sessions of the House, except when necessary for hearing arguments upon an election case.

Mr. GAINES of Tennessee. Does the gentleman from Illinois know that a quorum of all the members of his committee will be present?

Mr. MANN. I did not understand the question.

Mr. GAINES of Tennessee. I say, does the gentleman know that all the members of his committee will be present. I understand it is proposed to sit during the holidays—

Mr. MANN. Of course the committee never goes to work without a quorum being present.

Mr. GAINES of Tennessee. Do you not think the resolution ought to be changed so as to compel those who are on these holiday committees to stay here and work.

Mr. MANN. This resolution does not prevent anyone from going home or requiring anybody to stay here; it has nothing to do with that question.

Mr. GAINES of Tennessee. Suppose all the members of the committee go home except the chairman, what will the chairman of the committee—

Mr. MANN. This resolution has nothing to do with sitting during the holidays or during the vacation. Is it purely a resolution to permit the Committee on Elections No. 1 to sit during the sessions of the House.

Mr. GAINES of Tennessee. Will the gentleman allow me a minute?

Mr. MANN. Certainly.

Mr. GAINES of Tennessee. Mr. Speaker, I do not make an objection—I did not hear its wording when read, though I listened—but the gentleman has yielded me a minute or two. I quite agree with what the gentleman from Iowa [Mr. HEPBURN] has said. I have thought several times of objecting to permitting these committees to sit during the holidays and at the same time Congress agree that it adjourn, which means adjourn and go home. We know that some of the Members will stay here, as they often do. We know that the majority go home to spend the holidays, and that is why we have holidays. I have thought it unwise for us to adjourn so many days before the holidays. I have thought we should have had shorter holidays and particularly that we should get to work on currency legislation, because the people expect us to relieve them by some legislation, and at once. We should try at least, and at once. Now we have been here nearly a whole month and have done practically nothing, and mighty little of that. [Laughter.]

Mr. Speaker, I say with all seriousness the American people think that long since we should have throttled the thieves who have imposed this panic upon the innocent people of this country and upon the banks of the country [applause on Democratic side], which has made them victims of Wall street, begging like Lazarus—

Mr. PAYNE. To what is the gentleman from Tennessee addressing his remarks?

Mr. GAINES of Tennessee. Mr. Speaker, I expect more than the gentleman from New York—those in Wall street—will laugh at what I say, but that does not and will not deter me in what I say, about these men who have imposed this outrage upon the people of this country, the plain people who are not responsible for this highwayman's act, imposing a panic as they have upon the defenseless people of this country. I say we should stay here throughout the holidays and by legislation, if it be possible, free the people of this country from the outrage of these vultures. I myself am compelled to go home because of illness of members of my mother's family; but I am willing, even under these circumstances, to beg off from that high mission, if possible, and stay here and all do our duty, not as Democrats or as Republicans, but as American citizens representing a free but enslaved people. [Applause.]

The SPEAKER. Is there objection?
